NEWPORT DAILY NEWS

It cannot fail to be a matter of interest to our readers, to know the views of the recently appointed Governor of Kansas, Hon R. J. Walker, in regard to the probability of Kansas coming into the Union as a free or a slave State. We therefore give the following extracts from a letter written by nim Sept. 30th. 1856, and addressed to the democratic Committee in Pittsburg Pa.

"If this question, as, provided by the Kansas and Nebraska bill should he left to the people of the Territory in forming their State Constitution, it will be determintheir State Constitution, it will be determined by soil, climate, production and the laws which govern the movements of population. Here, the North, aided by its greatly superior numbers by European non-salve-holding emigrants, by the greater facility of movement, unincumbered by the transport of slaves or the amprophenion of transport of slaves, or the apprelension of their ultimate condition have great a transges over the South in the settlement of new tertitories, and should be perfectly satisfied with the principle which leaves the determination of this question, when they become a State, to a majority of the people of the Territory. This is the Kansas Nebraska bill, This is non-intervention—absolute non-interference by the Federal Government. This is the doctime of the Constitution. This is that rule of absolute equality of rights of all the States, which lays at the foundation of the Confederacy. This is that constitutional right, recognized in the admission of new States, that they come into the Union upon an equal looting with the other States, in all respects whatsoever. But the equality does not exist, if other States did accode or come into the Union, with or without slavery, at their pleasure, and Kansas cannot do so. "There is another reason, not heretolore adverted to, which seems to render it impracticable long to maintain slavery in Kansas. In all the slave States there is a large sas. In all the slave States there is a large majority of voters who are non-slaveholders, but they are devoted to the institutions of the South—they would defend them with their lives—and on this question the South are a united people. This class, composed of many small farmers, of merchants, propagation, men, mechanics, expressers, and fessional men, mechanics, overseers, and other industrial classes, constitute mainly the patrol of the South, and cheerfully unite in carrying out those law essential to preserve the Institution. Against a powerful minority and constant agitation, slavery could not long exist in any State. It is a well known fact that this result would have followed soon, in several of the slave States, but for the unanimity speedily produced there by the abolition agitators and intermeddlers of the North. Now Kansas is much divided on the question of slavery there; there is a powerful minority there, if not a majority. A party not neuthere, if not a majority. A party not neu-mal, but bitterly hostile to the institution: and for this in addition to the reason before given, I do not believe Kansas will be-come a Slave state."

THE DUTIES OF TO-DAY.

To-day the freemen of this State, ar privileged to express at the ballot box their political preferences. It is a duty which ought to be exercised thoughtfully and with a proper sense of its importance The transactions of the past few months are still vivid in our minds. We then saw d gigantic wrong enthroned in places of trust by an unfortunate division among men who were earnest in their opposition to it. Let as not now add to its already formidable strength by further dissension, but be united in a real endeavor to consolidate a permanent opposition which will transfer the government into other hands. The most important matter is the selection of a Representative to the 35th Congress. We should have a man who has been tried and found true in the absorbing question before the American people. At a time like this we cannot afford to try experiments, and we are sure that every man who is thoroughly and really desirous of limiting the extension of Slave Power, can vote for Nathaniel B. Durfee, with full assurance of his honest devotion to Liberty. On the State Ticket w fidd the well known names of Elisha Dyer Thomas G. Turner, John R. Bartlett, Chas. Hart, and Samuel A. Parker, every man of whom will certainly make honest and efficient officers. A better State Ticket, composed of more unexceptionable candi dates could not have been selected, and though every man on it, with the exception of Col. Turner will be elected without doubt yet we trust that Newport will do her best to give them a hearty endorsement. Our local nominations are equally good. It is to be presumed that every man who has any character, any firmness, or any opinion of his own will have enemies, and it may safely be assumed that he who has no enemies i unfit for any position of responsibility; but our committees have given us upright, hon est, and efficient men, who will do their duty faithfully, and we fully believe that they will every one, be handsomely elected.-Our Senator, Mr. Knowles, is well known and has been on public service long enough to be fully appreciated. Our first Represen tative Mr. Sheffield combines natural ability, legislative experience, and legal knowl edge, with sincerity of purpose which can not fail to increase our influence in the house. Mr. Anthony, is an old member and a very industrous and useful man.-Mr. Peckham is too well known to require a word in his behalf. He thinks, and acts rightly and leaves the talking, and time wasting to others. Mr. VanZandt Is to be gin his career a Representative, which we doubt not will be a creditable and useful

one. He has fine talents, and laudable am bition, and will not be content unless the duties easigned to him are properly discharged. Judgel'erry we all know; no better selection could have been made. We bespeak for this ticket the votes of every member of both the parties by whom it was nominated. This is the time for conciliation and organization, and no better selections could have been made with that view,

To-day let us set apart to bring about a result, the good effects of which will be realized for many years to come.

Look out for Spurious Tickets.

All descriptions of mongrel tickets will be circulated to-day, and every voter should examine his vote before he places it in the box. Men who would shrink from robbing another of money will seek to defraud him of his vote, by substituting one similar in appearance but with some one name changed! which is worse. Vote early, and see that your neighbors go and do

Night.

At an American Republican Ratification Meeting held in the State House, last night James A. Greene, Esq., was chosen Chairman, and Henry S. Peckham was Secretary.

On motion of Samuel A. Parker, the nomination of the American and Republican Committee were unanimously ratified.

W. P. Sheffield Esq. was called ont, and remarked that this fusion of parties was no new thing, that all Government was a compromise, and that there was no reason why two parties whose principles were identical, should fail to unite. He hoped the union would be permanent and cordial .--Mr. VanZandt followed in his usual happy strain. He urged the necessity of preserving the party intact for the next national struggle, and hoped all dissensions could be

He was an American, and had fought to the best of his ability in their ranks, he was also a Republican, he intended to act with that party, and embraced their views with sincerity. He hoped that his hearers would vote for principle even if they occasionally had to vote for men who were not their first choice, The meting adjourned in the best possible feeling, and determined to elect their Candidate, which intention they will redeem to-

We would call attention to the "Metallic Burial Case," advertised in another column by Langley & Bennet.

We examined it vesterday with considera ble core, and cannot well forbear saying that in our opinion, it surpasses anything of the kind we have ever seen.

It is, as indicated by its name, metallic.

It is also airtight: thus securing the body against early decomposition.

It is, moreover, beautiful, both in form and finish. If you are not straid to be reminded of your mortality call and see for yourselves.

MELANCHONY OCCURRENCE. - John MELANCHONY OCCURRENCE.— John Francis Carr, a young mon residing with his father, Mr. Joseph A. Carr, on Ship street, in this city, committed suicide yeaterday, by shooting himself, under the tollowing circumstances: For some months past young Carr had been paying attention to a Miss Mathewson, residing in Greeneville, and had been accustomed to go ont in the stage every Saturday afternoon, returning by the same conveyance on Monday.--- Last Saturday he went out as usual, but during his interview with the young lady on Sunday, it is understood that she discarded him, and declined to receive any more of his attentions. The young man hired a team and came in town about 9 o'clock, Sunday evening procured a pistol, and re-turned to the hotel in Greenville, where he remained during the night. In the morning he seemed to be laboring under a strong mental excitement, amounting, in fact, to derangement, passing about the village without his coat, and otherwise actvillage without his cont, and otherwise acting very strangely. About nine o'clock he took a letter that he had written, and carried it to the house of Mr. Joseph Mathewson, where the lady in question resided, placed it under the door, and then with his istol shot himself through the heart dying almost immediately. A coroner's jury was summened, but we did not learn the result of the inquest.

John Carr was a steady, industriou oung man, about twenty-one years of age, a jeweller by trade, and possessed in an eminent degree those amis le qualities that would endear him to his relatives and would endear him to his relatives and friends. The grief of the stricken father and the unutterable anguish of the loving mother, at this afflictive bereavement, can not be described by pen of ours, and even immagination fails to fathom the depth of their woe .- Prov Post ..

The Burning of Canton—Feeling of the other Chinese Cities toward the Cantonese.

(Extract from private letter to the Dublin Evening Mail.) CANTON, Jan 13-The only active move ment that has been attempted was on yes terday. The day before arrangements were made for firing the whole of the suburbs of the city on the north bank of the river. Our orders were to fire the suburbs from the west corner of the city wall, in a direction

All the bullets I saw were made of iron. All the builts I saw were made of iron, very unshapely, and like that which we should call slugs. It was with difficulty we could prevent the men from shooting every poor devil they surprised in the houses; and had we not exerted the greatest atten-tion every one of them would have been nurdered. This burning proceeding is very horrible, and I wish we were done with it, which I am happy to say, I think is the case which I am happy to say, I think is the case, at least for the present. The admiral had great forlearance in not attempting it before, which he might easily, and perhaps justly, have done. The extent which has been destroyed is a line of perhaps two miles along the north bank of the river and neuetrating inwards from 200 to 400 yards. A considerable part of the city has also been burned by the firing from the fort. been burned by the firing from the fort, which is held by us.

The fire lasted about twenty-four hours.

The admiral has written for about 5000 men from India: we also expect 500 men from Singapore. We have not yet heard what effect these proceedings have had on the Chinese garrison; the extraordinary thing is, that what we do here does not in the least affect the other ports of China with which we trude. All accounts show that they are quite indifferent to this place, and rather glad than otherwise that the Cantoness—whom they hat—are getting touched up. The so-called rebels are quite close to us, and made overtures to us to become our allies, but as the general impression is that they are only a hand of thieves, we have not entertained their advances, or listened to them in any way. It is extraordinary that the constant pressure does not make the Chinese governor give in, as these rehels are playing the devil with the neighborhood burning and destroying villages in every direction."

REWPORT DAILY NEWS

ZIMMERMAN, THE . MILLIONAIRE,-Mr. Zimmerman, less than twenty years ago, worked at his trade, which, we believe, was that of a blacksmith, in the central part of this State. He, h-wever, pulled up stakes one fine morning, turned his face toward the setting sun, and his family in Pennsylvania lost sight of him entirely. In the mean time a younger brother, by frugally taking care of his earnings, was enabled to start a cach line between Spruce Creek and Williams urg, consisting of a four-wheeled Williams' urg, consisting of a four-wheeled vehicle and two horses, which he drove himself. Several years ago a gentleman stopped at Spruce Creek and desired to be driven to Williamsburg, but there being no other passenger, the proprietor of the aforesaid "line" at first objected. He nevertheless consented, and the stranger got out he handed him, instead of the usual fare—$3—a $300 hill. This began to open Bill's eyes to the importance of his passenger, and he soon d'scoverel that he was no other he seen d'scovered that he was no other than his brother Sum, so disguised in good clothes that a thirty miles' ride had not undeceived him. Subsequently the now wealthy barker bought his poorer brother a farm in Illinois worth $5,000, on which he now resides.—Pittsburgh Post.

Ayer's Cathartic Pills

Ayer's Cathartic Pills.

The sciences of Chemistry and Medicine have been taxed their utnost to produce this best, most perfect prigative which is known to man. Immunerable proofs are shown that these linds have virtues which surpass in excellence the ordinary needleines, and that they win unprecedenteitly upon the esteem of all men. They are safe and pleasant to take, but powerful to cure. Their penetrating properties stimulate the vital activities of the ledy, remove the obstructions of its organs, purify the blood, and expel disease. They purge out the foul humors which breed and grow distemper, stimulate sluggish or diserdered organs into their natural action, and impart healthy tone with strength to the whole system. Not only do they cure the every-day complaints of every budy, but also formidable and dangerons diseases that have baffled the best of human skill. While they produce powerful effects, they are at the same time, in diminished doses, the safest and best playsic that can be employed for children. Being sugar-conted, they are pleasant to take; and being purely vegetable, are free from any risk of harm. Cures have been mula which surpass belief were they not substantiated by men of such cratted position and character set of forbid the suspicion of untruth. Many eminent elegymen and physicians have lent their names to certify to the public the reliability of my remedies, while other have sent me the essurance of their conviction that fy to the public the reliability of my remedies, while others have sent me the assurance of their conviction that my Preparations contribute immensely to the relief of my afflicted, suffering follow-men.

The Agent below made is pleased to furnish gratis my American Almanac, containing directions for their use and cartificates of their curse, of the following complaune:—
Costiveness, Bilions Complaints, Rhemantism, Dropsy, Heartburn, Hendache arising from a foul Stomech, Nangari, Indigention, Morbid Inaction of the Bowels and Painsrating therefrom, Fintulency, Loss of Appelite, all Ulcerness and Cutaneous Blessace which regolie an evacuant Medicine, Scrothia or King's kril. They also, by parifying the blood and stimulating the system, cure may complaints which it would not be supposed they could reach, such as Bealines, Paritial Billuders, Neuraliga and Nervous Tritiability, Dorangements of the Liver and Rich pays, Goat, and other kindred complaints arising from a low state of the bady or distruction of its functions.

Do not be put off by unprincipled dealers with some other pill they make more profit on. Ask for Arra's Phus, and take nothing else. No other they can give you compares with this in its intrinsic value or carative powers. The sick want the best aid there is for them, and they should have it.

A REMEDY which CURES IN FIVE AMINUTES.—M. LEROUX'S French Cholera Cognae Bitters. This truly wonderful scientific compound is recommended by the most eminent and learned physicians of all Europe and America, and cajuys the best reputation of anything similar ever offered. It is without doubt, the best must officient and generally neknowledged remedy against cholera, dysentery, diarrhova, and complaints of the stomach in general. The ammerous patients who have tried it according to directions have invariably found relifet in a very short time, and the best proof of it is, that since this statidard remedy was introduced in the armies of the Allies in the Crimea, the mortality of the soldiers from cholera and similar diseases was diminished by over 75 per cent; in consideration of which, the inventor was presented by the French and English governments with a gold medal, bearing the inscription, "Hall! M. Leroux, the great chemist and invenue, by whose knowledge our armics are preserved from cholera."

This invaluable preparation is also a remedy for billiousness, indigestion, weakness, and general derangement of the stomach. Upon being taken, it creates appetite, and prevents the heaviness attendant upon eating by persons who are dyspeptic.

In this city, also this remedy has been tried with the most undoubted success, and the undersigned can produce the best testimonials of our most celebrated physicians, as to its inmediate and complete success, which he will be happy at any time to show to any that may yieish to see them.

Boston, March 20, 1855.

Prof. Wood—Deer Sir—Having become prematurely quite gray, I was induced some 6 weeks since, to make a trial of your Hair Restorative. I have used less than two bottles, but the gray hairs have disappeared; and although my hair has not fully attained its original color; yet the change is gradually going on, and I have great houges that. In a short time my hair will be astdark as formerly. I have also been much gratified at the healthy moisture and vigor of the hair, which, before was harsh and dry, and it has ceased to come out as formerly.

Respectfully yours.
